

Community Congress

Way to close gap in communication

by WALT ORVIS

Lack of communication between people, between friends and associates--a communication gap--is often cited as one cause for the many problems in this world, or the cause of not finding solutions to them.

Upland Chamber of Commerce is planning to do something about communications in Upland--a one-day Community Congress at which communication will be the key.

The idea isn't new. It's been going on in Long Beach since the late 1950's, and has proved quite successful there. It is new in this area, and plans are being laid now for a Community Congress next spring.

What a Community Congress does is to bring together one day representatives of all clubs and organizations, municipal government, industry, education (you name it), and individuals for an exchange of ideas, information.

A Community Congress provides a forum for people who are concerned with the community or some phase of life in the community.

People who have never had a chance to meet and talk with city officials or civic leaders will get that chance at the Community Congress.

Format for the Congress is being worked out by a committee representing practically every field of endeavor in the community.

Harry Kruse, retired executive vice president of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce and the father, or one of the founders of the Community Congress in Long Beach, met with the project committee last week and outlined the program in Long Beach and gave tips on how to operate a successful program.

It all began, Kruse said, with a search for a means to find a way to combat the always popular negativism in the city of Long Beach.

The Community Congress idea was the result of that search and has been carried on every year since.

It starts with coffee and doughnuts in the morning at the first general session. Next are panel discussions devoted to certain specific topics, four or a half dozen, whatever seems right.

Final phase of the day is a summing up.

The real value, Kruse pointed out, is that a Community Congress serves as a sounding board, gives individuals and organizations a chance to express themselves.

He emphasized that a Community Congress is not an organization, not a super-club.

E. Harvey Stone, Stone Funeral Home and Chamber director, is chairman of the steering and project committees planning the Congress. Other steering committee members are:

Mrs. Bill (Barbara) Valion of the Upland Inn, former Chamber board member;

Tony Malone, Chamber manager;

Mrs. Althea Correll, representing Business and Professional Women and a member of Zonta;

C. Richard Heald, Upland Savings and Loan president and Chamber director; Mrs. Richard Flores and Mrs.

Russell Fahrenkamp, representing the Upland Junior Woman's Club.

The Steering Committee decided to complete the job a broader base was needed, so the group became the project committee and the following were added:

Walter Reardon, CPA of Thrall and Reardon, professions; Dr. Harry D. Wiser, president of Chaffey College, educational field;

Jack Smith, industry, director of air control and research at Kaiser Steel;

Jim Price, director of Upland Boys Club, youth;

Milton Tees, president of Fun after 50 Club;

Max Hawkins, city councilman.

Douglas Lewis, president of Upland Dodge, business.

Frank Ayala of Rugg Lumber, business and Mexican-American community representative;

George Schilens, city recreation director.

MISSING: a representative of labor, but to date no union official in the community has been found, nor has come forward to represent that phase of community life. It is hoped that the hole will be filled soon.

Now the committee has to decide on a format, panel topics, and find a place to hold the Community Congress.

Upland based airline gets official okay

Upland is now the home of an airline.

Cable Commuter Airlines has been officially notified that it had been awarded a certificate of convenience and necessity to operate scheduled airline service between Los Angeles International Airport and the communities of San Bernardino, Ontario, Palmdale/Lancaster, and Inyokern/China Lake.

Cable has been serving the Inyokern/China Lake area under contract to the Military Airlift Command for the past ten months.

William E. Myers, who recently resigned from the Board of Air California to assume the presidency of Cable, stated that the purpose of the airline is to alleviate some of the surface congestion and parking problems of our regional airports.

By April, 1968, Cable plans to give every-hour service between San Bernardino, Ontario, and Los Angeles International Airport in both directions with the new DeHavilland short take off and landing turbo jet twin otters.

In addition, there will be six round trips per day to Palmdale and three round trips per day to the Inyokern/Ridgecrest/China Lake area by December, 1967.

Cable Commuter Airlines also operates the Cable Flying School, Ground School, and Air Taxi Divisions out of the Cable Airport in Upland.

Roger B. Cable, chairman stated that the airline plans to extend service to at least 10 other communities in the Southern California area during the next three years.

Gas stations -- what to do with them?

What in the world should be done, what can be done with gas stations? That is an oft asked question in Upland Planning Commission and Council meetings and it came up again Tuesday night at City Council's regular session.

Although there is a service station ordinance on the books, City Council is still looking for more and better ways to really control them.

They want to know what other cities are doing, and City Administrator Elwin Alder will make a report back to Council.

Planning Commission is also interested. There is some sentiment on both sides in favor of some kind of limitation on the number of stations popping up on good commercial corners.

However, to give the new man a breathing spell, Council

One of the objections, is that gas stations are somewhat of a drug on the market, with many of them closed from time to time.

There's one at Arrow and Mountain now that is closed, as Mayor James Christensen pointed out Tuesday night.

Across the street Council approved a lot split for another station. Christensen was the only one who voted against it.

An argument against limiting gas stations, only because some of them are not

New business given break by Council

Upland City Council voted Tuesday night to give the new Downtown businessman a break--a three-month delay in starting to pay his share of the Parking District costs.

Parking fees are paid as part of the business license ordinance and the money goes eventually to the Downtown Parking District, for which the City is agent.

However, to give the new man a breathing spell, Council all (same five people are the Parking District Board) voted to give the businessman a 90-day break.

Opening escrow for purchase of land for the four new and/or additions to, parking lots was also voted. The four additional parking spaces will ring the Downtown District, and is part of the Chamber of Commerce-City backed Downtown revitalization.

Civic Center story

Next chapter awaits bid opening

Next chapter in the Upland Civic Center Story will occur Wednesday, Oct. 11, when City Manager Elwin Alder opens bids received for construction of the Library and Fire Headquarters station at City Hall.

Construction bids for the 12,000 square foot Fire Station to be located on the southwest corner of Arrow Highway and Second Ave. and for the 23,000 square foot Library to be located at the northwest corner of Euclid Avenue and "D" St. will be turned over to the city staff for study prior to award of contract or other official action.

Construction will be completed ten months after groundbreaking and occupancy will occur during the fall of 1968.

Architectural plans for the new City buildings were begun after a plan of action for the Upland Civic Center was formulated following several well-attended town hall

Lions to have rummage sale on two days

Upland Host Lions Club has scheduled a rummage sale for Friday and Saturday next to A & P Market, to swell its fund for boys and girls work.

The Host Lions will be on deck to sell the goods they have collected from 1 to 7 p.m., Friday, Oct. 6, and against Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Vacation Village beckons shopper

A trip to Vacation Village on Mission Bay, San Diego, for two, will be awarded some shopper Friday, Oct. 20, by Upland Merchants.

They will send the winner to Vacation Village via Bonanza Airlines, directly from Ontario International Airport.

Boxes to receive shoppers' entries will be located in cooperating stores, which will feature special sales. Boxes will be in the cooperating business places starting Wednesday, Oct. 11, through Friday, Oct. 20.

A drawing will be held at the Grove Theater that Friday night. No purchase is necessary to participate.

Three days and two nights at the resort are included in the winner's prize package. There will be free admission to Sea World, a two-hour cruise on Mission Bay, unlimited use of the golf course and tennis courts, complete use of the hotel's recreational facilities, and complimentary tickets to jai alai and Caliente race track in Tijuana.

AFS students now 'at home' in Upland

by Rosamund Douglas

The busy back to school month of September has flown away and Upland High School American Field Service students find themselves settling into lives centered around their adopted families and school activities.

When Cassandra Passos of Brazil and Mesfin Ayenew of Ethiopia were interviewed this week they both were in complete accord on two points: their happiness and lack of "homesickness" in their foster Upland homes.

Cassandra, 19, of Curitiba, Parana, Brazil has been with the Wendell Harmon family of 314 E. 11th St. for more than a month now and states, "It's just like home." In fact, she says she is so happy with her wonderful family here and her classes at Upland High, she must be careful when talking to her mother in Brazil--she doesn't want to sound too

At home in Brazil, Cassandra, lives with her parents and one younger sister, so the activity at the Harmon home with Steven, 19, Jan, 16, Sally, 14 and Laurie, 9 has her completely delighted.

She said coming to America has always been her dream and the dream of many Brazilian school children and she considers herself very fortunate to have been selected.

Cassandra attended the Los Angeles County Fair last week, along with a number of A.F.S. students, but she was so busy saying, "Hello" to all her friends she really didn't get a chance to see much of the Fair. The Harmon said they planned to take her back for a thorough inspection tour.

Cassandra speaks English with an easy fluency though at times she will hesitate and check a word with Mrs. Harmon. She also speaks Spanish and German.

She has studied at a school for elementary teachers and intends to make education her profession.

Cassandra appears to have established a trusting and warm relationship with the Harmon family and Mrs. Harmon said the adjustment was very easy for her family and for Cassandra, who has brought with her much of her South American culture to share with the Upland family.

Not quite a month ago, the Robert H. Cameron family welcomed to their home at 320 W. 18th St., Mesfin Ayenew, 18, of Addis Ababa, Ethiopia Upland's second A.F.S. student.

Mesfin is a senior student at Upland High and according to reports from the Cameron son, Harlow, 17, he already is quite popular on campus.

English speaking Mesfin, is interesting and "fun to have in our home," said Mrs. Cameron, and Harlow added, "He's a great sleeper."

Mesfin seems to be impressed with our co-educational system in Upland, having spent many years in a private boys school at home. He has studied English, Amharic, French, history, science and mathematics at St. Joseph's Parochial School in Addis Ababa.

He is a little disappointed that his favorite sport, soccer is not played at Upland High, but in two weeks at school he has managed to become a participating member of the track team, running the 880.

Life in the Cameron home is quite different for Mesfin, who comes from a family with seven children. One of the biggest adjustments he had to make, was getting used to American food. According to the A.F.S. student, the food itself is not that different, just the preparation. He added that Mrs. Cameron was a "good cook."

Mesfin is all checked out on the current dance steps and if he has any doubts about anything, Harlow is right there to fill him in on the latest. They were already planning to attend an after-the-game school dance scheduled for Upland High this past weekend, though Mesfin hasn't had any actual "dates" as yet.

Mesfin's father is the assistant minister in the Ministry of Justice, Execution and Pardon in Ethiopia.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron have two other children, Scott doing graduate work at Cornell and Mrs. Philip Bowers, a teacher in Chino. A dog, Spike, approximately seven or eight years-old also resides at the lemon ranch.

It would seem, that Mesfin has adjusted perfectly to the all-American atmosphere of the Cameron home and is well on his way to enjoying an exciting year in Upland.

THE HARMON'S AT HOME -- Cassandra Passos, of Brazil (seated center-front) will be spending her American Field Service year as the adopted daughter of the delightful Harmon family. Seen grouped with the South American

the American Field Service Program. Shown with Mesfin from the left is Harlow, 17 and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron.

Annual Silver Tea San Antonio Woman's Auxiliary

The works of celebrated local artists will be featured at the 41st annual Silver Tea of the San Antonio Woman's Auxiliary to be held Monday, Oct. 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Anderson, 1725 N. Euclid Ave.

The art of Millard Sheets, Sue Hertel, John Svenson, Denis O'Connor and Nancy N. Colbath will be displayed throughout the pool area of the Anderson home from 3 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Wolfgang Koessler, general chairman will be assisted by Mrs. Will Mason, and the following committee chairmen: exhibits, Mrs. George Colbath, Mrs. George Gibson; refreshments, Mrs. Willis Kimble; tea table, Mrs. Alfred Dakin and Mrs. Warren Savage; and hostesses, Mrs. Clifford Downing.

Also: pourers, Mrs. Mason; punch bowl, Mrs. Ernest Henderson; cuisine staff, Mrs. William Rusche, Mrs. Fred Gattas and Mrs. Frank Lesinsky.

The beautifully decorated home of Mrs. Anderson will be open to the public and guests will view white and gold French provincial furniture complimented by venetian china, and artifacts from around-the-world.

Mrs. Herschel Glenn, auxiliary president has extended an invitation to all women of the community to attend this annual affair.

LOOK WHAT OUR MOMMIES MADE -- Morning session kindergarten children at Cabrillo school were really enthused when they had a preview showing of gay pinatas made by the PTA for sale at Fiesta De Cabrillo. The women have constructed everything from pink elephants to missals.

Area youths take ribbons at Fair

Los Angeles County Fair officials have released the following list of Upland exhibitors, awarded ribbons in the junior fair division displays.

Cheryl Addison, 2480 B. Foreman, a 4-H member has won a ribbon for a baked goods entry.

Crys Hoefer, 2456 Mesa Terrace, a 4-H member has won four ribbons, three with sewing entries and one with a coffee cake.

Linda Nichols, 2499 Mountain Lane, a 4-H member has won eight ribbons. Seven were won with canning and cooking entries and one with dichondra grass.

Christie Norton, 1750 W. Foothill has won three ribbons, two with vehicle models and one with cookies.

Sharon Norton, 1750 W. Foothill Blvd., a 4-H member has won four ribbons, one for sewing and three for vehicle models.

Rebecca Potts, 1837 W. 11th St., a 4-H member has won four ribbons, one for cookies and two for sewing, and one for a dragster model.

Dan M. Rowland, 112 White Court, a 4-H member has won a ribbon for a yardlight.

Barbara Rzepecki and Eva Rzepecki, 1784 W. 9th Street, both 4-H members are also winners. Barbara won four for various sewing entries and Eva won two for sewing entries.

Marilyn D. Spinella, 1058 Hampden Ct., a 4-H member has won three ribbons. Two were for sewing and one was for home furnishings.

The Upland Ambassadors have won second place with a 4-H feature with a home economics theme.

Bill Tehmert, 86 Orchard Lane, a 4-H member has won a ribbon with nutsquare cookies.

Barbara Young, 269 S. San Antonio, a 4-H member has won three ribbons with home furnishings entries.

Cabrillo PTA plans Fiesta

Fiesta De Cabrillo, an Indian, Western and Mexican costume carnival sponsored by the Cabrillo Elementary PTA is scheduled to take place Saturday, Oct. 14, on the school grounds.

Mrs. James Story, ways and means chairman has announced a program which includes sale booths, live dog show, performing clowns and lunch facilities with a western menu.

Booths available for the enjoyment of children and adults are listed as follows: fish pond; bumper cars; fish bowl toss for live fish; stand it; cork gun; pen game; dart balloon; pitch till you win; lollipop tree and a jail complete with sheriff for anyone wishing to spend five minutes in jail.

Of special interest to parents will be the decorative and clever pinatas planned for sale at the trading post along with other new and old articles.

Mrs. Tim Mazzoni, food chairman has planned a menu of tacos, chili beans, hot dogs, potato chips, dessert and soft drinks. For the children, she has planned cotton candy and snow cones.

On behalf of the faculty and staff of the Cabrillo School, Richard Riley, principal, has extended to friends and neighbors, as well as parents and pupils of the school a most cordial welcome to attend this annual PTA fund raising event.

Children's Theatre Readings

The first meeting of the Children's Theatre group saw an encouraging response with an enrollment of 25 children, reported Mrs. Louise A. Jagers, producer.

The next meeting of the group will be held at 4 p.m. Friday, Oct. 6, at 205 E. F. Street, Ontario.

All area children are invited to attend and read for Albert D. Carrier, director. Mrs. Jagers may be contacted by calling 984-5418 or 982-7709.

Carnelian PTA To Meet

Carnelian School PTA will hold its first meeting on October 5th at 7:30 p.m. at the school. The theme of the meeting will be Alta Loma: Past, Present and Future, and will feature Col. Arthur Bridge, Eugene Billings and Floyd Stork as guest speakers. This meeting will kick-off the annual membership drive.

Egg production will decline if hens are denied salt in their feed.

Flower children at Pioneer J.H.

In response to an appeal made by the Upland Red Cross for gift bags for Vietnamese refugee children the student council Pioneer Junior High raised a total of $120 selling paper flowers to their classmates.

The students made and sold Bong Mai (apricot flowers) to raise the money to fill 25 TET bags, each containing a new pair of lightweight shorts, toys and school materials.

Mrs. Mantha Birkes, eighth grade teacher took a special interest in the group and promised to match the amount collected from her homeroom. She donated $8.

Vietnam's TET, a holiday that corresponds to America's Christmas, New Year, Easter, All Soul's Day and Fourth of July all rolled into one, will start January 31. It is a national holiday and everyone's birthday.

Everyone dresses in their best for the holidays. According to tradition, he who goes out on the first day of TET with old clothing admits to the basic form of poverty.

For this reason these TET bags contain articles of new clothing and four gift items for the children. This will assure them of not only having a gift for themselves but gifts to give to others, which is very important to the Vietnamese.

Some gifts are taboo, therefore the Pioneer Junior High School students adhered to the list provided by the Vietnam Red Cross.

Parliamentarian group for area club women

Miss Frances Barks has recently been elected president of the newly formed California Sigma Omega Unit of the National Association of Parliamentarians.

The organization which has been formed to instruct women in correct parliamentary procedure will be directed by the following slate of officers: Mrs. Eugene L. Warren, vice - president; Mrs. Joe W. Shanklin, secretary and Mrs. Walter Hopkins, treasurer.

Committee chairmen are as follows: hospitality, Mrs. H. L. Banta, Mrs. Rubie

Rowland and Mrs. H.J. Ludwig; program, Mrs. Shanklin, Mrs. Arthur Novelli and Mrs. John L. Sugar; membership, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Robert M. Conway and Mrs. Alma M. Kinnett.

Organizations from Montclair, Ontario and Upland are represented by the Business and Professional Woman's Clubs, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Woman's Clubs and the Wind and Sun Council Camera clubs in the area.

Membership in the new Sigma Omega Unit is open to all interested women wishing to learn and take part in proper parliamentary procedure in order to assume official positions or chairmanships in their clubs.

A course of study is given at each meeting for those wishing to complete 20 hours of study for membership in the National and state organization.

The next meeting of the group will be held Thursday, Oct. 5, at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Miss Barks, 1056 E. Arrow Highway, Upland. Provisional members can be accepted at any time.

Social notes

Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Tift and daughters Lois and Lorraine of Cucamonga had a surprise visitor Saturday from Washington, D.C. Mr. Floyd E. Tift, brother of Lester. Dinner arrangements were made at their home for the members of the Tift family who could arrange to come. Floyd was unable to bring his family this trip as his wife Kay is teaching school in the capitol city and one child is in college and one in high school.

Floyd spent Saturday night with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fischer of Claremont. Mr. Fischer was the former principal of Chaffey High School in Ontario.

Guests who arrived at the Tifts' home in Cucamonga were: Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Tift, Ontario, their daughter, Kay Tift, Upland, two sons, Darrell of Long Beach and Rex, home on weekend pass from Fort Ord, with his wife Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cummings of Cucamonga were also guests.

The Lewis Tift family of Carpinteria were unable to make the trip and illness prevented Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gonce of Cucamonga to attend.

Floyd is on a business trip and will now go on north to San Francisco.

Christina Doblick has enrolled as a freshman at Loretto Heights College in Denver, Colo.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Doblick of 1715 North First Ave., Upland and is a 1967 graduate of Pomona Catholic Girls High School, Pomona.

She has tentatively selected speech and drama as her area of concentration at the four-year liberal arts college for women.

Carol Y. Locke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Logan Locke of 338 Merrimac Court, Upland, has entered the freshman class at Pembroke College, Providence, R. I. Carol is one of 305 girls accepted from a list of 1,751 applicants. She is a graduate of Upland High School.

The San Antonio Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution recently held a luncheon meeting at Squire's Restaurant in Ontario.

Mrs. M. L. Gottfried, regent, conducted the business session and Mrs. Maurice L. Bonillas, national defense chairman, urged all members to write their congressman urging him to oppose the H.R. 5037 bill.

The group was told that Rep. John R. Rarick is heading a group opposing this legislation, which would further curb the local police by allowing the Attorney General to have dictatorial powers over them.

Exhibitors from Upland were among ribbon winners in the Culinary division of the Los Angeles County Fair. Judith La Forge, 958 Washington, won a ribbon for her filled cookies. Ruth A. Quinn, 1205 Winston St., won a ribbon for her date loaf cake.

"My Favorite Cake" and oatmeal cookies won two ribbons for Mrs. Ray Rieckert, 269 E. 21st St.

Al-Cucamonga Library Open

Mrs. Howard Kilmurray invites visitors to visit the Cucamonga - Alta Loma Branch of the San Bernardino County Library during City and County Government Week, October 8-14. The library is located at 9161 Base Line Rd., Cucamonga and is open Monday through Thursdays 12 noon - 9 p.m., Fridays 12 noon - 6 p.m. and Saturdays 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. The County Library, which has a tax rate for 1967-68 of 11.9¢ on a hundred dollars of assessed valuation, or a little more than one cent on one dollar of assessed valuation, provides books and other library materials to people of all ages, from picture books for the preschooler to material to fit the many interests of senior citizens.

When you visit the library, you will find how-to-do-it books that will help you remodel your house, landscape your yard, repair your car, prepare interesting meals and learn about child care. There are books that will help you in your job or to enjoy a hobby.

Use magazines and newspapers at the library along with books to keep up with current affairs. People who are taking adult education courses will find the public library supplements the school library. People studying by themselves will find the public library invaluable. Material not found at the Cucamonga-Alta Loma Library can be requested from County Library Headquarters.

The library has books to read for pleasure as well as books of information. If you are an arm-chair traveler, if you like "who-done-its", or science fiction, or westerns, or if you like to read about people -- try the library.

If you come during the week of October 8-14, or at a later date, a library staff member will give you a library card and show you how the books are arranged in the library.

Study of Paul at Brethren in Christ Church

An interdenominational study of the Life and Letters of Paul will begin on Wednesday, Oct. 11, at 9:30 a.m., in the Fellowship Hall of the Brethren in Christ Church, 845 W. Arrow Hwy., Upland.

The unique study is open to persons of all faiths. There is no charge for the course. Mrs. Byron McIntyre is the teacher.

Mothers who are interested may bring their youngsters, as nursery care is provided for infants and toddlers and a non-denominational Christian training program is available for the three to five-year-olds.

If you don't like the way things are going in Washington, write your elected representatives a letter.

Edison scholarships program open to Upland High seniors

College scholarships and collateral grants totaling up to $42,000 will be awarded again this year by Southern California Edison Company.

Edison President Jack K. Horton said six scholarships offering each winner $4,000 for tuition and expenses, and collateral grants of up to $3,000 to each private college attended by winners are offered in the Edison competition.

In announcing the ninth year of the Edison awards, Horton said the purpose of the program is two-fold:

"To help promising young students reach their educational goals and, at the same time, to give financial assistance to private colleges and universities."

The program is open to all high school seniors either living in, or attending high school in, Edison's service territory in central and southern California and a portion of Nevada, he said.

One $4,000 scholarship will be awarded in each of the company's six geographic divisions. Winners may attend their choice of 25 participating private colleges and universities in the Southland.

Brochures describing the Edison program in detail are now available through high school counselors or at the nearest Edison business office.

Hospital opens data processing center

A Data Processing Center, with computer equipment to handle billing patients, paying suppliers, maintaining inventory and personnel records, officially opened at San Antonio Community Hospital Friday, Sept. 29.

In making the announcement, Administrator John L. Towers stated, "While many hospitals in the United States are waging an uphill battle with increased demands of paper work and Medicare requirements, San Antonio Community Hospital has, over the past two years, been gearing to meet these demands by entering into an extensive and comprehensive program of Automatic Data Processing (ADP)."

At San Antonio Community Hospital, the benefits of ADP to patient care have already been established. The computer is fast and accurate and makes it possible to reduce paper work and expensive, time-consuming, repetitive tasks.

This past year, computer time has been rented from the First National Bank and Trust Co. and, since early summer, the hospital's computer equipment has been installed at Chaffey College, until the new center was completed.

This joint sharing of equipment has shown savings to patients as well as other benefits to patient care. The hospital is now leasing equipment in order to take advantage of the rapidly expanding developments in computer technology.

The business office and management applications, including payroll and accounts payable, will be followed by patient billing this fall and, later, by medical statistics, and, eventually, some of the patient-care functions themselves.

The electronic computer is moving into the front line of patient care in community hospitals across the country. Since the advent of Medicare, the demand for increased and increasingly complex medical services, and the corresponding proliferation of records, government reports, third-party billing, etc., have shown the computer to be an indispensable asset for the modern hospital, large or small.

The computer provides on line random access storage, using interchangeable disk packs, containing up to 2.5 million characters of information per pack, and is capable of printing up to 240 lines per minute.

The combined decision of the hospital's Board of Trustees and Medical Staff to utilize computer applications demonstrates a definite and progressive trend of action in reducing the cost of operation at San Antonio Community Hospital. Towers, stressed the "common sense" approach to computers. "Essentially, this means retaining the human touch, which has been traditional with hospitals. There will always be the obligation to make certain that hospital activities retain their focus on human values."

"It is recognized that computers are machines and that hospital employees will not be replaced by them. Instead," states Towers, "the computer will tend to make employees' jobs less tedious and more interesting."

Montclair Plaza strikes terror in the hearts of some of the timid, and brings fire to the eye of others who aim to survive the giant commercial center.

It's interesting to watch the moves in surrounding cities to combat the mammoth center.

Unfortunately, progress always seems to hurt some, although there may be a general long-range benefit for many.

Montclair stands to gain the most from the Center, and its neighbors stand to lose, if they don't do something to counteract the effect of the big center.

UPLAND'S downtown is doing something positive, with its downtown revitalization, and that should help immensely.

There is so much negative grumbling in this world, it's thrilling to see some positive action.

Upland downtown already has a core of faithful shoppers as a nucleus. With the revitalization, that nucleus can be built into a vital force for the continued survival and prosperity.

People who make a trip out of town to Ontario now, are just liable to make a trip to Montclair Plaza, leaving Ontario to suffer.

Just about everyone will have to make at least one trip to Montclair Plaza next August just to see it, but (Continued On Page 7)

Flower, garden show

Plans are shaping up for the big flower and garden show to be featured at the 1968 National Orange Show in San Bernardino, March 7-17.

An exhibit division for organized amateur garden groups has already been included in premium list planning. Entries in this division will be open to any such groups anywhere.

Mrs. John (Ann) Spencer of San Bernardino, chairman of the citrus exposition's floral and garden exhibits committee, said preliminary information on this division was being released at this time so members of these groups would have the opportunity to plant required materials for spring maturity.

One exhibit class in this division will require landscaping of typical home areas such as entrance ways, planters around lamp posts and other sometimes "problem areas." The basic props will set the theme and the amateur groups will compete in designing and executing the plantings.

Other classes specify collections of potted plants and cut plant specimens. The latter includes categories for varieties of all one type of plant, or varied combinations of related or assorted plants.

For additional information, garden groups interested in competing in this exhibit division, may contact the division consultants: Mrs. Virginia Demusen of San Bernardino, at TU7-1122; or Joel A. Martin Jr., of Colton, at 825-3280, or by writing National Orange Show, 689 So. E St., San Bernardino, Calif. 92408.

..begins at home

Congressman Jerry L. Pettis of California's 33rd Congressional District voiced vigorous opposition to the President's request for a $200 million contribution to a new special fund account planned for the Asian Development Bank.

Pettis said that the Administration has in recent weeks turned down requests for legitimate loans in San Bernardino County where unemployment is at a high level. "Before we make more contributions to the Asian Development Bank, let's establish a San Bernardino County Development Loan Fund. Small businessmen in this County face bankruptcy because of the lack of adequate capital."

"There is a limit," declared Pettis, "to the amount of deficit spending our nation can afford. The American taxpayer will agree with me that we have long since passed that limit. Until matters are settled in Vietnam and in our own cities, we have no business increasing an already intolerable debt."

According to Pettis, the funds would be used for long term loans yielding low and unrealistic rates of interest. "Valid as the needs of other nations may be," he said "we face crises at home and in connection with the war in Vietnam. Until these problems are dealt with, we must learn to say 'no' to such requests. The best thing that we can do for Free World nations is to balance our own budget and stabilize our uncertain economy, already threatened with runaway inflation."

Bank deposits indicate area financial center

In terms of total bank deposits, the Southern California area continues to be one of the leading financial centers in the nation.

In a report issued by Security First National Bank's Economic Research Department, the 14-county area, with more than $19.3 billion in bank deposits, accounts for approximately 5.6% of the national total.

The latest figures available indicate that during the six-year period from June, 1960 through June, 1966, this money was being held in more than 10 1/4 million accounts. (Figures include only deposits held by banks.)

According to Security Bank, the hub of financial activity in the Southland centers in the Los Angeles-Long Beach Metropolitan Area. This region accounts for nearly $13.2 billion in total deposits, or 68% of the Southern California total.

The local area ranks third among all U.S. Metropolitan areas. New York remains in first place with $58.9 billion in deposits, followed by Chicago, with $19.7 billion.

The San Francisco-Oakland metropolitan area, as of June, 1966, ranked fourth with $11.1 billion in total deposits.

In terms of percentage growth, total bank deposits in Los Angeles County increased by 53.4%, making it the fifth fastest growing among the nation's ten metropolitan areas. The local growth rate was exceeded by Detroit, 73.6%; San Francisco - Oakland, 59.4%; Chicago, 56.7%; and Cleveland, 56.3%.

During the six-year period, Security Bank's report notes that among the Southland's 14 counties, Orange County experienced the greatest percentage growth in bank deposits, raising 148.6%. It was followed by Riverside County, up 94.6% and Ventura County, up 93.1%.

San Bernardino County was up 55.1%, but ranked fifth in total bank deposits with $553,085,000, behind Los Angeles, San Diego, Orange, and Fresno Counties.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman said the decline in farm numbers indicates farming's status as a growth industry. . . one in which output per man-hour rose nearly three times as fast as that of the rest of the economy from 1950 to 1965.

File 13

that doesn't break a shopping habit of years' standing.

People who drive from the valley to West Covina won't have so far to drive to Montclair Plaza, but their shopping there will be no loss in the first place. Only West Covina's major stores will be the losers.

I think Upland's downtown revitalization is going to mean more to Upland than any amount of handwringing and worrying.

WHEN EASTLAND opened up in West Covina, and some other major stores moved in, there was a slump for some of the other places of business, but they eventually recovered, and other things being equal, everyone is doing pretty well.

That will probably be the experience all over this valley. Merchants who really serve their customers instead of moaning and groaning, should survive in good shape.

Downtown Upland should become a real pleasant place to shop. Instead of the moan and groan tactic, something is being done, and in the end, having the big center in the area may prove to be a catalyst to progress in Upland, and other communities could well follow suit.

THERE IS still some wishful thinking about Montclair sharing its sales tax with surrounding communities.

I say "wishful thinking" because Montclair will not voluntarily start sending monthly checks to other cities.

Right now Montclair is about to launch a $1.5 million special assessment district to include all kinds of public improvements in the Montclair Plaza area.

MONTCLAIR property owners in the vicinity will bear the expense. Montclair Plaza is not an unmixed blessing.

True, there will accrue to the City some $400,000 in sales tax revenues each year for a while after the Center opens, but expenses to the City are pretty high.

Traffic lights and street work necessary to handle the increased traffic will be included in that Assessment District.

However, one continuing expense will have to be born by the City, the cost of several additional police officers. That's not cheap.

Putting one police officer in one car 24 hours a day, seven days a week, costs around $35,000 to $38,000 annually. The shopping center may create a need for many more.

Montclair long ago said that there was no sharing sales tax revenues with other cities. It was noted at the time that the other cities willing to share the revenue had not offered to share the expenses, which is an understandable attitude.

ONE BIG argument in favor of Montclair sharing its revenues was the celebrated case of Inland Shopping Center in San Bernardino, not particularly a shining example.

In order to get the Inland Center annexed, San Bernardino would have promised anything. To date, no one has received one cent of revenue except San Bernardino.

Highest result so far is a pitched battle between San Bernardino Mayor Al Ballard and Supervisor Nancy Smith.

ANOTHER tough nut financially to crack is the cigarette tax return to cities.

Upland is one of many cities that wants a change, because the split is based on point of sale, as is the sales tax, not on population.

Where cigarettes are sold, cities reap the benefit. Bedroom cities need more revenue to provide services and they are not the ones benefitting the most from point-of-sale tax distribution.

It has been said that every city in the valley would benefit from the change. One published list included Montclair.

Montclair would benefit more from a population base division now, but in the future from the present sales tax set up.

Montclair has had some experience in splitting taxes—sales taxes. Sears in Pomona Valley Center extends into San Bernardino County and the City of Montclair.

In a court case several years ago that went clear to the State Supreme Court, it was decided that the cash registers in Sears were in Pomona, so Montclair gets 1/8 of the sales tax, Pomona 7/8.

Taking that into account, and trying to talk Montclair into splitting its sales and future cigarette tax money, leads to my term "wishful thinking."

There are a lot of other cities that will get fat off the sales tax, industrial cities with very few people, where the money is not so desperately needed.

What is fair and what is not will not be decided by me punching the keys on this typewriter. It will take legislative action, and that won't be easy. It is hoped something equitable can be worked out. Legislators (some anyway) are trying.

Cities getting fatter off from sales and cigarette tax revenues will be pulling one way, others in the opposite direction.

Probably what is needed is what has been needed for a long time, and which will probably never occur, a complete overhaul of the entire tax structure from the federal government on down. Don't hold your breath.

WHEN UPLAND KIWANIS sat down for lunch Tuesday noon at Upland Inn, these "waitresses" were on hand passing out the beans, and then moved in a special table for themselves and enjoyed steak. The "waitresses" it turned out, were members of Foothill Kiwanis Club living things up for the noon group.

Man On Leave From Vietnam

Robert Arteaga, 20, the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Arteaga of 7414 Lion Street in Cucamonga recently arrived home for a 30-day leave from the Army in Vietnam.

Arteaga was wounded in action while on boardship on the DaNang River.

A 1964 graduate of Montevia High School, Arteaga has been in the Army for the past 13 months and served some six months in Vietnam before he was wounded. The extent of his injuries include a compound fracture of the left arm and injuries to his left side caused by mortar shrapnel.

About the war in Vietnam, Arteaga said, "We are limited in what we can do. . . I'm glad I'm home, but I have a lot of friends over there."

After his leave, Arteaga will return to Fort Ord, Calif. He will be discharged in 11 months.

'Vietnam phone-call' families to meet Wednesday night

Families who will be able to talk to their sons in Vietnam Nov. 25 on a phone call to be paid for by Montclair Kiwanis Club were asked to attend an informational meeting Wednesday evening at Tyler's Holiday Restaurant, 9191 Central Ave.

There are 45 families on the list who responded to an offer by the Montclair club, which will pay $4 a minute for a three-hour telephone connection to Saigon. Arrangements are in progress through Congressman

Jerry Pettis and the Pentagon to have servicemen stationed in places other than Saigon in the South Vietnam capital city for the phone call.

Families from Montclair, Upland and Ontario are on the list.

Holiday Motor Lodge, in the same location, has volunteered two rooms for the phone call, where special equipment will enable whole families to talk at once to their Vietnam servicemen.

THE INN'S CRYSTAL ROOM OPENS--Barbara Vallon, co-owner of the Upland Inn invites inspection of the new party and banquet facilities. Mrs. Vallon describes the mahogany and red felt room with crystal chandeliers, as a room designed for the women, but open to all clubs and organizations. With a seating capacity for approximately 70 people, the new room is adjacent to the gold room and is equipped with a portable bar. Sliding glass doors exit to the Ninth St. on the south and double doors exit on the west to the dining room with another set of double doors entering the gold room on the north.

Tract maps approved

Tight money and high interest are still with us, but three tentative tract maps approved by Upland Planning Commission indicate a continued upswing in residential construction. Added together they constitute 75 building lots, the largest being the 44-lot map submitted by Torta-Hensley for an area north of 16th west of Wilson Ave.

Kennan Construction of La Verne has 18 lots on its map, at the northeast corner of Euclid and 20th St. Ara Melickian, La Canada, showed 13 lots on a map of an area between Arrow Highway and San Bernardino Rd., on the east side of the San Bernardino Flood Control Channel.

Troop 652 Honors Local Eagle Scouts

Boy Scout Troop 652 honored Eagle Scouts at the court of honor held at the Cucamonga Methodist Church Thursday, September 28.

Among those receiving their awards for achievement were Eagle Scout, Bruce Howard who was presented with the Bronze Palm and the home repair merit badge.

Tom Merendino was presented his life rank and junior assistant scoutmaster badge along with two merit badges for hiking and home repair. John Hamilton received his star rank and three merit badges for hiking, lifesaving and reading.

Receiving their second class rank were Ralph Stuebe, Larry Chafman, Tommy Mitchell and Herb Smith.

The following boys received their tenderfoot rank: Trejo Francisco, Kenneth Hagan and Ray Walker.

Merit badges went to Dave Dacolas, reading and home repair; Dave Corner, music;

Robert Downey, swimming, hiking, home repair and lifesaving; Larry Downey, hiking and home repair.

Receiving their one year pins were: Cliff Grotjohn, Tommy Birkhofer, Steve Schlereth and Ralph Stuebe. Dana Hanes received his one year pin and a one year perfect attendance pin.

Rev. John L. Swineford received the charter for the troop from scoutmaster C. J. Hamilton.

The closing ceremony was given by Rev. Swineford.

Approval was also recommended William E. Vallon's request for a conditional use permit to remodel a portion of the Upland Inn, which has been undergoing a series of improvements in keeping with Downtown Revitalization.

PUBLIC HEARING was set for Oct. 25 on a review of general plan amendment. Consideration will be given to the plan concerning many different places throughout the city.

Elected representatives read their mail. Write them a letter.

Chargers, Hawks blank opponents

In two separate clashes two Upland Pop Warner football teams came out victorious in Mount Baldy Conference competition on Sunday.

The Upland Chargers defeated the Bloomington Bears 12 to 0 and the Upland Hawks beat the Claremont Warriors 13-0.

Chargers

The first quarter was scoreless but before the game was over Rocky Chapman scored 2 touch downs for the Upland Chargers.

First T.D. in the 2nd quarter was set up by the passing from David Carter to Rocky Chapman who pushed it over from 2 1/2 yds. out.

3rd quarter was scoreless but the fine green defensive line of the Chargers kept the Bears deep in their own territory.

After the start of the 4th quarter the Bloomington Bears kicked to Rocky Chapman who returned it 13 yds.

David Carter ran for 5, then Rocky Chapman, with excellent broken-field running and fine blocking, ran 32 yds. for the 2nd T.D. the Chargers were unable to score eight P.A.T.

Head coach Dave Zuccolotto was impressed with his entire green defensive unit and praised both offensive and defensive for their fine play.

The Chargers again ended the game on the Bears' 24-yard line with the ball and the game. Before leaving Bloomington the Upland parents proceeded to win all prizes, a transistor radio, cookie and cracker jar set, and a flower arrangement.

In the future all Upland Pop Warner home games will be played at the Alta Loma High School at 16th and Vinyard. ALHS has changed the watering schedule, to make it possible. Upland, at this time, has no place available for youth football. The Pop Warner Association says it is very happy to play at Alta Loma and under their conditions.

Next Sunday, Oct. 8, Upland will host Pomona in 3 games, at A.L.H.S. Upland Hawks vs Pomona Bruin's (midget division) kick-off 12:30; Upland T-Birds vs Pomona Packer's (pee-wee division); Upland Chargers vs Pomona Bruin's (pee-wee division).

Hawks

Upland started its drive in the first quarter after Mark Emilio recovered a fumble. John Nocella ran for a touchdown with a long pass from Rudy Alonzo. Ralph Valadez ran the extra point across.

Claremont's drive for a touchdown was stopped on the Hawks 5-yard line by the Hawks defense. The Hawks took over and drove deep into the Warrior's own territory before the first half ended.

Upland received the ball in the second half and drove 60 yards for a touchdown. Ralph Valadez made the touchdown through the center of the line. The Hawks failed to make the extra point.

Bob Fuentes made the second Upland touchdown on a long pass from Rudy Alonzo but was called back because of a penalty.

Raul Abrego demonstrated excellent ball-carrying ability by numerous gains on the ground. Neal Boring also made many good runs.

The outstanding defensive players in the game were Jim Moore (Guard) and Ralph Valadez (line backer).

Male physical fitness class started by Y

A men's physical fitness class started at the Ontario-Upland Y.M.C.A. from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday.

The class will be held on Tuesday and Thursday nights and is directed by Doug Whitmer, physical education teacher at Imperial Junior High School and Jack Frost, football coach at Cal Poly College.

The course will consist of conditioning exercises, weights, rowing machine, static-bike riding, running and jogging, plus a game of volleyball.

AL men play on college 11

Jack Weatherbie and Theo Bruins of Alta Loma are listed on the Chaffey College football squad.

Weatherbie is an end and Bruins a kicker.

Uplanders run

Four Uplanders are running on the Chaffey College Cross Country roster.

They are Rick Adams, Tom O'Haver, Cliff Thomas and Roger Vinocchi.

Chaffey lists 10 Uplanders on grid team

Ten players who call Upland home are listed on the Chaffey College Panther football varsity.

They are Ken Pomona, halfback; Larry Freeman, fullback; Pat Quinn, halfback; Dave Huey, halfback and end; Dave Garcia, line-backer; Greg Shepherd, end, letterman; Nate Shelton, tackle; Allen Jakobeic, tackle, letterman; Don Fritz, tackle; and Bob Nichols, end.

Frosh swim on polo team

Five freshmen water polo players from Upland are lending their weight to the Chaffey College Water Polo squad.

They are Mike Asay, Mark Holz, Don Shattuck, Terry Throop, and Jon West.

110 braves attend YM fall campout

One Hundred ten little and big braves of the Ontario-Upland YMCA 'Y' Indian Guides attended the fall campout at Camp Oakes.

Tribes attending included the Tetons, Klamath, Pauma, Ararapho, Comanche, Hopi, Saux Fox, Mohawk, Chinook, Kiowa, Choctaws, and Crow. The campout demonstration was won by the Comanche, the Hopi placed first in the campfire skill with the Choctaws placing second. Craft awards went to the Chinooks and the attendance awards went to the Mohawk and the Kiowas.

The camp program was conducted by the following tribes: Forest regulations, the Choctaws, the Hopi, the Klamath and Comanche. The campfire Indian Sign story was told by Frank Corsaro and Nick Kelch.

Dan Norman gave the Sunday morning worship service using the 19th Psalm as the basis for his sermon.

Phil Fladland, Chief of the Klamath and Longhouse Wampum Bearer, presented the little Braves with their prizes. Nick Kelch, Medicine Man, presented the various achievements to eight little braves.

Gil Butt, Longhouse Chief was in charge of the campout assisted by Paul Sage, Frank Corsaro, Phil Flad-

Braves upset Upland, 18-12, but Scots still in top 10

Although the Alta Loma Braves downed Upland High, 18-12, in last Friday's football game the Highlanders still retained 10th place standing in the Prep Football Writer's Poll.

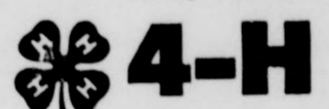

The two teams battled to a scoreless tie in the first quarter, but with 6 minutes to go in the half Braves' star quarterback Rocky Long completed a 77-yard drive by plunging over for 6 points from the one yard line. The boot for the extra point failed and Alta Loma led, 6-0.

Upland wasn't satisfied to remain on the short end of the stick at half time. With little time left Highlander field general Paul Katona passed to Dale Magruder for 48 yards, and with 12 seconds remaining finally put Upland on the scoreboard on a 6-yard toss to Rich Cooper in the end zone.

The attempt for the PAT, that would have put the Highlanders in the lead, failed, and the half ended in a 6-6 tie.

NEWS

The Etiwanda 4-H Club's first year cooking class held its first meeting of the year on September 26 in the home of leader - Sandi Lasswell.

Those attending were Bill Green, John Cloe, Bob Duke and Jim Duke. They cooked open-face frankfurter sandwiches with celery sticks, carrot curls and cubed Jello.

The Etiwanda 4-H Club Light Horse project held their first meeting September 23. The leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Green, discussed horse safety, care of the horse and horse psychology. The group is planning to attend the horse show at Norco on October 1. They will meet at 7179 East Avenue, Etiwanda, at 8 p.m.

The next meeting of the club will be October 7 with ride and a sack lunch. Those attending the first meeting were Bill Green, Sandi, Kathy, Barbie and Patty Lasswell, Julie Gearhart and Brenda Poole.

At the recent PTA meeting at the new Summit Elementary School, the Etiwanda Energetics 4-H Club gave the flag ceremony.

Those members assisting with the ceremony were: Judy and Mike Thornton, Steve Kutra and Sandi and Kathy Lasswell. Instructing the members was Mrs. Evelyn Kelly.

The next meeting of the third period Alta Loma's Steve Ryder blocked a Highlander punt, picked up the ball, and ran 30 yards for the score. Though the try for the extra point was unsuccessful the Braves were on top once more.

Halfback Jeff King put the icing on the cake for Alta Loma when he passed, on an option play, to Long who ran the remaining 32 yards for the touchdown. Again the kick for one point failed, but the Braves had a commanding lead, 18-6.

The Highlanders managed one last score with 22 seconds left in the game. Magruder ended the drive with a pass reception from Vance Willison from 12 yards out. Though the kick for the PAT was blocked it was of no consequence in the final outcome.

AWARD WINNING DISPLAY -- The above Upland Ambassadors 4-H display was entered in the Los Angeles County Fair last week and was rewarded with a second place ribbon. All items contained in the room were designed and made by club members.

4-H Club Wins With "Fair" Booth

A 2nd place ribbon was awarded the Upland Ambassadors 4-H Club this week for their feature booth entry at the Los Angeles County Fair. Using the home furnishings project as their theme, members worked together to decorate a girl's bedroom. Items from each project year are represented. Painting and posters were done by members of the Woodworking project. Committee members were: Linda Nichols, 368 Central Ave.; Sharon and Christie Norton, 1750 W. Foothill Blvd.; Gloria and Joe Gula, 1630 W. 11th; Rebecca Potts, 1837 W. 11th; Dan Rowland, 112 White Court; and David Hansen, 307 S. Laurel.

Quimby promises senior citizen bill

Assemblyman John P. Quimby (D-Rialto) promised California senior citizens that he would reintroduce the bill vetoed by Governor Reagan which requires a deduction from state old age benefits for home ownership.

"I will reintroduce this bill and keep reintroducing it until this albatross that has been red-taped to the necks of our senior citizens is cut away," Quimby pledged.

The measure which was passed through the Legislature last session, deleted a requirement that a deduction for "ownership value" of a home be made from old age benefits.

Reagan's veto of the measure marked the first time that a bill by the third-term Assemblyman had ever been disapproved by the Governor.

"I can only believe that the Governor, or his advisor on this matter, did not really understand the situation," Quimby said.

"I introduced testimony in committee hearings that showed the paperwork involved in deleting the occupancy value of a home cost more than the state saved in withholding the money."

NOTICE OF SALE

T. O. NOS. TS 571-66 thru TS 578-66

On October 14, 1966, a

NOTICE OF DEFAULT AND ELECTION TO SELL UNDER DEEDS OF TRUST, executed by TRI-CITY SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a corporation, referring to Deeds of Trust hereinafter listed and described was recorded in book 6713 pages 361 thru 368, in the office of the County Recorder of San Bernardino County, California.

Each of said Deeds of Trust having been executed by DOWNING AND WARD CONSTRUCTION CORP., a corporation, for the purpose of securing certain obligations in favor of TRI-CITY SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a corporation, each of which obligation includes, among other things, one Note for the remaining principal sum as set forth below, each Deed of Trust recorded on the date and in the various books and pages of Official Records of San Bernardino County, state of California, as hereinafter set forth and each deed of trust described a respective lot in Tract 7580, being a subdivision of Lot 363 of Map of Ontario, in the city of UPLAND, CALIFORNIA, as shown by map on file in book 11 page 6 of Maps, San Bernardino County Records.

By Reason of a breach or default in the respective obligations secured by each of the respective Deeds of Trust, a Notice of the breach which was recorded as set out above, TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, as duly appointed Trustee in each of said Deeds of Trust at 11:00 o'clock A.M. on Thursday, October 19, 1967, will sell at public auction for cash, payable at time of sale in lawful money of the United States of America, at the front entrance of the Pioneer Title office of Title Insurance and Trust Company, at 340 Fourth Street, San Bernardino, California, without covenant or warranty, express or implied, as to title pos-

"In other words, the veto did not help the state's fiscal situation. It did, however, delete a few dollars from the checks of some of our older citizens who are already hard - pressed to stretch their limited incomes to cover the rising cost of living."

"The only victory was bureaucracy which nourishes itself on paperwork."

The Assemblyman called for abolition of occupancy value of homes owned by those receiving old age assistance as a "counter-step from our economic system which encourages home ownership and the possibilities that go along with it."

"It seems silly to establish FHA and veterans' home loan programs because we say 'it is good for a citizen to own his own home', and then when he gets old say 'you don't deserve as great a benefit because you don't have to pay rent'," Quimby said.

meetings held at the Upland High School Cafeteria in May and June of 1966.

The Civic Center is designed by noted Architect Edward Durell Stone whose designs include the General Motors Office Building in New York and the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C.

The Civic Center project is being undertaken by the Upland Civic Center Building Authority which was created in September, 1966, by a Joint Exercise of Powers Agreement between Upland and the County of San Bernardino. Members of the Authority Board are Harold Cook, Chairman, Eugene Nisbet and Russell Hazen. The City will act as agent for the Authority.

The project is being coordinated by the Civic Center Committee of the City Council which is composed of Councilmen Ronald Rossitter and George Gibson.

Obituary

Funeral services for Nikolai Kumets, 72, husband of Ludmila Kumets of 88 W. 9th St., Upland, were held Tuesday, Oct. 3, at the Stone Funeral Home.

A native of Estonia, Mr. Kumets had been an Upland resident for 17 years, and was a retired civil engineer. He died Saturday, Sept. 30, in San Antonio Community Hospital.

He was a member of the Greek Orthodox Church.

Besides his widow, he leaves a son, Igor Kumets of Ventura; one niece, Mrs. Milvy Van Der Booms of Wyckoff, N. J., and two grandchildren, Linda and Allen Kumets of Ventura.

Interment took place in Bellevue Cemetery.

How to be No. 1

Have you ever won something big by doing things different? A patrol of Troop 607 did, when it took first place at the Council Camporee.

Early this summer Old Baldy Boy Scout Council held its year - end camporee, where all the troops got together to have their patrols compete in Scouting Skills. (A patrol is usually a team of 8 boys and any number of patrols form a troop)

Patrols prepare for this event a year in advance. Troop 607 barely managed to scrape together two three-

Objection voted to Elton's beer,

wine licensing

Shades of the Tender Trap arose Tuesday night at Upland City Council meeting, when Council followed its precedent and voted to file an objection with the State on granting Elton's Restaurant a limited beer-wine license.

Elton's is located on the south side of Foothill, across San Antonio from the northern portion (stadium) of Upland High School.

A similar protest was filed in the Tender Trap case, which involved a location in the shopping center on the northwest corner of Foothill and San Antonio, a considerable distance greater from the school.

The Police Department recommended that a protest be filed.

quarter strength patrols one week in advance.

Patrol Leaders Del Lindsey and Roger Vignocchi soon discovered their patrols were too weak to compete and merged under the name of "Desert Foxes"

Their 13 man unit consisted of Ken Elliot, Joey Elliot (no relation), Bill Hughes, Terry Krueger, Doug Leo, Del Lindsey, David Locke, Mike Lutz, Dave Peeples, Frank Seubler, Bob Taylor, Roger Vignocchi and Bruce Ward.

The "Desert Foxes" proceeded to shed three inspections and five skill events by extracting a total 94 points from 100 points maximum. The next patrol had 89 points. This made "Desert Foxes" the top patrol in the District.

Each Troop was also graded by averaging that Troop's patrol scores. Since Troop 607 had only one patrol with the unapproachable score of 94, 607 became the number one troop in the Old Baldy Council.

Among nearly 26 million U. S. veterans are 15,000 post-Korean veterans under 20 years of age and 9,000 Spanish-American War veterans 89 years of age and older, according to the Veterans Administration.

Our men in service

Robert D. Williams

Robert D. Williams

Marine Private Robert D. Williams, son of Mr. Willard A. Williams of Upland, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot at Great Lakes, Ill.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

John Kulczycki

Seaman John S. Kulczycki, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Kulczycki of 1381 Monte Verde Ave., Upland, is in the Mediterranean aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt.

This is the 17th deployment to the Mediterranean for the carrier during the last 22 years.

The FDR has spent more time "on station" in the Mediterranean than any other carrier in the Navy.

Other milestones in the carrier's history include winning three Admiral Flatley Aviation Safety Awards and being the first aircraft carrier to operate jet aircraft (1946).

During this deployment the carrier will participate in various Sixth Fleet exercises and joint exercises with other NATO country ships.

Daniel Rivera

Marine Private Daniel Y. Rivera, son of Mr. and Mrs. Trofio D. Rivera of 1356 Bower St., Upland, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot at Great Lakes, Ill.

He will now undergo about three weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

Daniel Rivera

Danny Ferguson

Marine Private Danny T. Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Ferguson of 888 W. Eighth St., Upland, completed two weeks of training under simulated combat conditions in the fundamentals of day and night patrolling, employment of infantry weapons, survival methods and assault tactics at this Marine Corps base.

This individual combat training is given every Marine after his graduation from recruit training. Taught by combat experienced non-commissioned officers of the infantry training regiment at the Great Lakes Training Station, it prepares the young Leatherneck to become part of the Marine air-ground combat team.

James Hewitt

Cadet James U. Hewitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Hewitt of 758 E. Arrow Highway, Upland, Cal. is one of more than 800 cadets who have started their junior year at the U.S. Air Force Academy.

As he began his third year at the academy, Cadet Hewitt was named to the commandant's list in recognition of his outstanding military performance. He wears a silver wreath designating the honor.

Cadet Hewitt will serve during the fall term as a squadron first sergeant with the rank of cadet master sergeant. He was selected for the position because of his demonstrated leadership abilities and effectiveness ratings.

During the past summer, the cadet served as a group sergeant major in a rigorous basic training course for the members of the academy's incoming freshman class. He was chosen for this special duty because of his leadership and teaching abilities. The training prepares the basic cadets for entry into the cadet wing. Cadet Hewitt will be commissioned a second lieutenant and awarded a B.S. degree upon his graduation from the academy.

He is a 1961 graduate of Upland High School and attended California State Polytechnic College at Pomona before his appointment to the academy.

The cadet is a member of the cadet chorale at the academy.

Marine Private Robert M.

Elliot, son of Mrs. Marjorie A. Elliot of 3530 Nipo St., Honolulu, Hawaii, and the husband of the former Miss Carmen A. Estrada of Etowanda, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

He will now undergo about three weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally of Marine Corps teamwork. A thorough study of basic military subjects; hygiene; first aid and sanitation; and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join Marine combat forces.

John M. Keys

Marine Private John M. Keys, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Keys Jr., of 7380 Lion St., Cucamonga, Calif., was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

Cigaret tax split

Hottest legislative item talk scheduled

Oct. 13 is the date set for the combined 35th Assembly District meeting between Orange and San Bernardino County City Administrators and Councilmen with Assemblyman John V. Briggs to lay plans to draft state legislation to give non-industrialized cities "a more equitable share" of the new cigarette tax. The meeting will be at 7 p.m. at the Stonewood Inn in Placentia.

Briggs has called the meeting to arrive at a "consensus bill" that the "cities of my district feel is more equitable," he said. "Specifically," said Briggs, "the majority of communities are being shortchanged on their share of the new cigarette tax revenue due to a 'mike-key' that was slipped into SB 556 in the closing minutes of the 1967 session of the legislature."

"Virtually every city in my 35th district including Placentia, La Habra, Brea, Yorba Linda, Fullerton, Ontario, Montclair, Anaheim, Fontana, Upland, Buena Park and Chino will see their residents pay the additional tax on a pack of cigarettes but very little of this additional 3¢ will find its way back to the city in which they live. Primarily the city which has the biggest sales tax revenue will receive the additional tax return. This is a case of the 'rich get richer and the poor get poorer', said Briggs. Cancer Physicians Needed?"

The city of Placentia, for example, will see its residents contribute $43,000 in cigarette taxes and will get back only $14,000. With a population of 18,000, the return is about 77¢ per person. The city of Vernon with a population of 208, will receive $555,875.68, or $2,672.48 per person.

The logical conclusion is that each person in the city of Vernon smokes 7700 more packs of cigarettes per year, or 21 more packs per day than does a resident of Placentia. If it's true, the city of Vernon doesn't need money, they need some good cancer physicians.

From the meeting is expected to come a unified proposal from Assemblyman Briggs' district that the delegation can get behind and promote statewide for action next January when the legislature reconvenes.

Coop planned

Small business, data processing forum set

Can the small business make profitable use of computers, automatic data processing?

A man who believes the answer is "yes" and wants to form a cooperative to enable small businessmen to do just that has announced a lecture and public forum to explain all about data processing and the small business Tuesday evening.

Keith Hoyt of Claremont, executive director of Group Access Systems, announced that the lecture/forum would take place at Tyler's Hol-day Restaurant, 9191 Central, Montclair, 7:30 to 10 p.m. Tuesday.

He said a $2 per person charge would be made to defray expenses of the room and speakers. No reservations are necessary.

Speaking will be T.C. Lane computer specialist from Buena Park, and S.A. Selznick of Walter V. Sterling, Inc., Claremont.

Anyone interested in the small business and computers is welcome to attend, Hoyt said.

AGENCIES supported by West End United Fund participated in "know your agency" day on Euclid Ave. Saturday, and Ontario-Pomona Association for Retarded Children was one that showed its activities photographically. At the exhibit were Mary Boyd, executive director, behind the screen, and Del Reid, president of OPARC, which recently opened its new school and workshop in Montclair.

BOY SCOUTS are a United Fund Agency, and demonstrating life in the Scouts were these three boys from Troop 334, sponsored by Montclair Kiwanis Club. Scouts cooking their lunch Saturday in Euclid parkway were, from left, Roger Ralls, David Lordie, and Eddie Gardner.

'Two-way street'

Annual police seminar slated

Theme of the annual Police and Community Relations Seminar at Chaffey College, Oct. 10, will be "Law Enforcement, a Two-Way Street."

The theme will be also the topic of keynote speaker Eugene S. Muehleisen, executive secretary of the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, State Department of Justice.

The seminar, now in its sixth year, is sponsored by the college in cooperation with the West End Chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Chairing the program committee is Thomas Montgomery, assistant superintendent of the Youth Training School, Chino.

Dr. Harry D. Wiser, president of the college, will welcome participants at the general assembly in the little theater at 8:40 a.m.

Capt. C.L. Johnson, Jr., commanding officer of the California Highway Patrol Pomona area will define the purpose of the seminar prior to the Muehleisen presentation at 9:05.

Following the guest speaker's 40-minute address there will be a panel discussion moderated by Roger Sagoupe, Ontario Police Department assistant chief, beginning at 9:45.

Panel members will be the Rev. Gordon K. Blunt, Bethel Congregational Church, Ontario; Ben Clark, Riverside County sheriff; Mrs. Lulamae Clemens, health education coordinator, Riverside County Schools; and Fred Lopez, Rialto attorney.

The panel will devote an hour to analysis of viewpoints keyed to the law enforcement theme, then open the discussion to the audience for a 30 minute question and answer period. William Perry, California Rehabilitation Center correctional counselor, will announce work group assignments at 11:15. Seminar discussions, preceded by a 15-minute coffee break, are scheduled from 11:45 a.m. until 1:45 p.m.

These sessions will be followed by a luncheon and group reports.

Among the participants will be youth representatives from the public schools, youth trainingschools, Boys' Republic, Teen Posts and San Bernardino Recreation Department.

The Rev. Robert Walker, NCCJ representative, will give the seminar summary and evaluation at 3 p.m.

Citizenship classes can enroll adults

Adult classes in citizenship and English for the Foreign speaking remain open for persons who are interested in becoming citizens or who wish to learn to speak the English language.

ENGLISH for the foreign speaking: "Let's Learn English", this is the textbook as well as the goal of those in Francis M. Ruggiero's class in the Chaffey High Adult Evening school which meets every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Ruggiero, who speaks both Italian and Spanish fluently, emphasizes the oral approach to English learning. Most of the class time is devoted to an aural-oral practice. The student hears and speaks the language before he sees the printed page and begins to write the words.

CITIZENSHIP: This class

is designed to prepare the foreign-born student for the naturalization test. The government manual is studied carefully and the students are instructed in the history and principles of our government, the structure of the national, state and local governments and the privileges and responsibilities of citizens.

Both courses are of 18 weeks durations and are open to all who desire citizenship or wish to learn to speak the English language. Students may register at the Adult School office located in the Gardner W. Spring High School campus any afternoon or evening, Monday through Thursday. There is no charge for the classes, however, students must purchase the textbooks needed for the course. Registration will remain open until the classes are filled.

Genealogists to meet

Pomona Valley Genealogical Society will meet on Monday, Oct. 9 at 7 p.m. in the first floor conference room of the Pomona Public Library.

Mrs. Shirley Fenn Baldwin Hartman, 1425 Ashland Ave., Claremont, will speak on "Research in Old Queens county (now Nassau) and Washington county, N.Y." She recently spent four weeks in that area doing on-the-spot interviewing and searching in cemeteries and other county records.

She was born and raised in Long Island, N.Y., and graduated from Alfred University in Alfred, N.Y. with a B.A. degree in English, Speech, and Dramatics. She met and married Guy L. Hartman in 1943 while he was attending the University of Buffalo. Dr. Hartman is on the staff at Kaiser Hospital, Fontana, and he is a Bishop in the Pomona Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints of which both are members. During her husband's military service in W.W. II, they lived near Munich, Germany for three years. Mrs. Hartman began her genealogy in eighth grade by making a family tree for a social studies project. It has only been ten years that she learned the correct methods of doing genealogy. She is doing research on the surnames of Baldwin, Fenn, Smith, Titus, Bain, and Macklin.

Mrs. Ethel M. Curtis, 2440 7th St., La Verne, will be giving an eight-week course in "Genealogical Research in England and Wales" using a series of film strips and discussions. These will be given each Wednesday, starting Oct. 4, from 7 to 8:45 p.m. in the Audio-Visual Viewing Room at the Pomona Library. Anyone who is interested in attending these classes and who has not yet signed up for them, should call Mrs. Curtis at 593-2928.

For those who would like to learn how to start tracing their ancestry, the Special Collections room at the Pomona Library is open from 7 to 8:45 p.m. every Friday with volunteers on hand to give individual help in getting started.

All Society meetings are open to the public.

Luisa Triana and her dance group who will appear at the Upland High School Auditorium, Monday, Oct. 16, at 8:15 p.m.

Concert moved to Upland High

The first concert for the 1967-68 season sponsored by the Ontario-Upland Community Concert Association will feature Luisa Triana and Company, and will be held in the Upland High School Auditorium, 565 West 11th Street, Monday evening, October 16, at 8:15 p.m.

Luisa Triana has been hailed as "An All-Time Great" of both folk and Spanish classical dancing. She is the daughter of the famed Antonio Triana. She has won acclaim as both dancer and choreographer in triumphant performances in Europe, Latin America and the United States.

Luisa Triana first performed publicly with the legendary Argentinita in Buenos Aires at the age of six, and two years later was presented in recital in New York by S. Hurok. She spent years of intensive study beginning seriously at the age of four in Paris.

Between the ages of 10 and 15 she danced in motion pictures and concerts at the Hollywood Bowl, and then with her father came tours of the United States, Latin America and Europe. At 16, Luisa Triana was officially approved and invited to perform at the Palacio de Bellas Artes in Mexico City. There she became the youngest dancer ever to perform the role of Candelas in the full performance of De Falla's "El Amor Brujo."

In 1955 Luisa Triana formed her own company appearing first at the Chateau Madrid in New York. Then she made her adult solo concert debut at Carnegie Hall, this was followed by a tour of Florida.

In Southern California Luisa Triana is best known for appearances in the Hollywood Bowl, the Philharmonic, with the San Diego Symphony, and six seasons of record audiences in Redlands Bowl, and as the sensation of Santa Barbara's 1962 Old Spanish Days Fiesta.

From her first New York Times review to the present Luisa Triana has stunned audiences and critics alike with what the Times called "her flashing speed, brilliance and virtuosity."

Included in the program will be Spanish moods interpreted through line and movement, with selections by De Falla, Halfer and Danciel. Typical dances from the provinces of both Northern and Southern Spain. Traditional flamenco dances illustrating technical and rhythmic virtuosity in the art of footwork and contrasts in rhythm. Spanish Classical with selections from Rossini and Granados - Casados

EATON, COLO., HERALD "By the way, they report Medicare isn't working out the way they thought it would. Maybe this is a case where Congress should take a second look. It would seem now that they have a couple of years experience, they could come through with a better bill. Some are recommending the government change the $3 payment idea and allow the Elders an amount on Social Security to purchase private insurance to use with Medicare. Seems to me that I heard that idea before the existing bill ever passed."

Luisa Triana and Cruz Luna who will perform Monday evening October 16 at the Upland High School Auditorium for the first concert of the 1967-68 season.

Valley Vista GOP Club presents Sen. Coombs

The Valley Vista Republican Club will hold its regular monthly meeting with Mrs. Dorothy Shothafer presiding, Thursday, Oct. 5, 7:30 p.m. in the Mira Monte Room of the Uplander Motel.

"Report To The People" will be the subject of Senator Wm. E. Coombs' talk. With a background in the law, accounting and writing fields, Senator Coombs has displayed a vast knowledge on many subjects that came before this last legislative session.

A small donation will be accepted at the door.

Virginia Ellis is concertmaster of symphony orchestra

One of Southern California's outstanding violinists, Miss Virginia Ellis of Riverside, has been engaged by conductor Robert Cole as concertmaster for the West End Symphony Orchestra for the 1967-68 season.

As head of the string section, Miss Ellis is now rehearsing weekly with the orchestra and will make her first public appearance with the group at the Autumn Festival, to be held at the Uplander Motor Hotel on Saturday, Oct. 7, under auspices of the West End Symphony Orchestra Association. This event, to begin at 6 p.m., will feature a Pops concert and wine-tasting party. It will be open to the public and receipts will help to maintain the orchestra during the coming year.

Miss Ellis, who is also a member of the Riverside and Redlands Bowl Symphonies, offers a biographical resume studded with the names of many famous artists and orchestras with whom she has been associated. Her career began at the age of 4, when she became a member of the Hollywood Baby Orchestra, and at 12 she was already teaching music.

She has been a member of the American Quartet, has made two concert tours, one jointly with the late Percy Grainger; performed solo in many concerts, accompanied by Diana Lynn and Andre Previn; recorded under Alfred Newman, Lionel Newman and others; played for nine years with symphonies under the batons of Stokowsky, Ormandy, Mitropoulos, Barbirolli, Kurtz and Beecham; also played for operas featuring stars such as Dorothy Kirsten, Rise Stevens and Roberta Peters.

Miss Ellis is the wife of Paul H. Beaver of 441 Massachusetts St., Riverside. She served as concertmaster for the West End Symphony early last season, while Herbert Weiskopf was still conductor.

Goodies cooking at Claremont SL

Claremont Savings is cooking up lots of goodies for gals these days.

The savings association is presenting a free "October Cook-in" daily through Oct. 10, for homemakers in this area.

Featured in the program are Mrs. Elsa-Karen Braden, home economist here for Southern California Edison Co., and Mike Roy, TV and radio's celebrated gourmet chef.

They're combining talents to present a wealth of cooking craft and special recipes.

Mrs. Braden demonstrates new cooking ideas and explains original recipes at 10 a.m. each weekday morning in the New England room at Claremont Savings' modern building at 400 N. Indian Hill Blvd., Claremont.

Her dishes include chicken-pecan a la king with waffles, sweet and sour spinach salad, raisin cream pie, Swedish apple cake and hot spiced cider. And everyone who attends gets to sample the cake and cider. Her last cooking class is Monday, Oct. 9.

Then Mike Roy takes over with a cooking school on Tuesday, Oct. 10, at the Village Theater, 230 W. Bonita Ave. in Claremont.

He'll provide inside information on how to prepare a number of difficult delicacies and some kooky confessions as well, including beefsteak in a pumpkin, kahlua under the sink, avocado salmon and avocado crunchy fillings, frozen papaya mousse and pate a choux, a dish that's delicious for hors d'oeuvres or dessert. Everyone who attends will receive a free, colorful bro-

Scouts set Jamboree in Idaho

Farragut State Park, Idaho, has been tentatively approved as the site for the 7th National Jamboree by the Executive Committee of the Boy Scouts of America.

Dwight Thomson of Cincinnati, Ohio, is chairman of the 7th National Jamboree Site Committee. The event is scheduled for the summer of 1969.

The 5,000-acre park on Lake Pend Oreille was the site of the XII World Scout Jamboree this past August, 12,017 Scouts and leaders from 107 countries attended.

Thomson explained that the executive committee had approved his committee's recommendation for the site, pending formal agreement with the state of Idaho relative to physical improvements needed to accommodate the larger national jamboree.

He also said that his committee had studied a number of possible sites in the course of developing their recommendation, and that they appreciated the interest and cooperation of the many individuals and groups helping search for the most appropriate site.

The park is located in the Idaho panhandle, 25 miles north of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho and 55 miles northeast of Spokane, Wash.

Dog fancier prefers Afghans

By Valerie Barna

If a dog is man's best friend, then Cucamonga Jim Larson, 10089 Base Line St., is a mighty popular guy! Larson, a bachelor, counts his seven prize-winning Afghan Hounds among his friends. "It all started when I was a little boy of about 10 years old," he relates. "I went to live with my uncle, Tom Collins of San Francisco, who was a dog-fancier. Making a hobby of show dogs, he brought some of the first bull terrier to this country from England." "There is a difference between a dog-fancier and a dog-lover," Larson intimates. "A dog-lover is one who loves all dogs, mutts included; while a dog-fancier looks only for the supreme example of a breed. It's the difference between a connoisseur and a glutton," he said.

At any rate, Larson acquired most of his basic dog knowledge and dog-fancyng tendencies from his uncle, with whom he had a close association for several years.

In the 1930's, Larson started his own collection of champion terriers. From terriers he went to dachshunds, to Doberman pinschers, and finally to Afghan hounds, which he has been raising for the last 12 years.

Larson has a particular interest in the history of the Afghan breed, which is a natural breed (found in nature) as opposed to a produced breed (bred into existence, such as the Doberman Pinscher).

The Afghan hounds were originally used in Afghanistan to hunt the chamois and snow leopard. The natives were so poor they didn't have guns, he related. The dogs hunted independently: they tracked the game, then killed it.

The natives, following on horseback, then picked up the dead game. Larson pointed out that the Afghan hounds hunt strictly with their eyes. "Most dogs see only shadows after 12 feet, but the Afghan sees like an eagle," he said.

The first importers of Afghan hounds to this country included Venita Varden Oakle, Zeppo Marx and Dr. Frank Porter Miller. The first Afghan appeared here in about 1925 although the breed had been introduced in England about 1912.

Larson picked up his first Afghan, Zoolie, in 1956. Zoolie was then mated with Champion Crown Crest Zardox (owned by Kay Finch, Corona) and gave birth to Khali Kho and Ghim's Tai Gher. Both dogs finished their championships in California.

Larson explained that every time a dog wins in a show, he receives so many points, depending on how many dogs were entered. To be declared a champion, a dog needs 15 points, according to the American Kennel Club (AKC). Two of these points must be obtained in a major show, one which awards three points or more.

Larson then mated Khali Kho with Cha Cha Cha of Shamalan and got a litter of seven puppies, five of which are left. Breeding these two prize-winners again yielded Kuka Munga Mondrian, a male who is now three years old and was declared "best in show" at the Afghan Hound Club of California.

JIM LARSON--of Cucamonga differentiates between dog lovers and dog fanciers. He fancies Afghan.

Currently living at Larson's Base Line Streethome are Mondrian, Khali Kho and the five pups remaining from the litter. Larson has lived there off and on since he was 19.

Other dogs from this address have found their way to Mexico City, Alabama, Washington, D.C., Massachusetts, Nevada, Arizona and the state of Washington.

All in all, Larson's champion dogs have netted him over 100 prizes in shows. He admits, however, that while he intends to stick with raising Afghans, his first love is still the Doberman Pinscher. "Actually, though, I love the best of a breed in any dog," he said. "You see, I'm trying to breed the perfect, ideal Afghan right now." Every pure bred dog has a written standard set up by the AKC, he explained. Among other things, an Afghan should look exotic, Oriental and aristocratic, be a keen hunter and be aloof with everyone.

Larson also gave his opinions on household dogs. Dogs best suited for children include the herd dogs, like German Shepherds, collies and pulis; sporting dogs like setters, retrievers, like Labradors or Golden; and hound dogs, like beagles, bassets and greyhounds.

The best guard dogs, he said are the working dogs like Doberman Pinschers, boxers, and German shepherds. These "herd" dogs have an inborn protective instinct. They have been bred to guard the herd, he said, and when they join your family you become their "herd."

Alaska has the nation's largest land area, 586,400 square miles, and the smallest population of all 50 states, 267,000. More than one-tenth of its population, 27,000, are veterans, according to the Veterans Administration.

JUST A PUP -- an Afghan youngster, one raised by Jim Larson, who breeds championship dogs in Cucamonga.

Pettis reports:

Sorry autumn scene

HERE WE GO AGAIN

The last week of September saw the first week of autumn as another "Great Society" summer came to an end.

With most of the kids back in school, Dad and Mom are free to worry about such things as taxes, inflation, the war in Vietnam, the growing welfare crisis and crime.

In spite of mounting public pressure, Stokely Carmichael and "Rap" Brown are still heard in the land, stirring up hatred and inciting violence and destruction.

Rioting has brought arson and looting to 60 or 70 cities and militant demonstrators predict a "hard, rough winter."

The Administration's multi-billion dollar Poverty War faces stiff opposition in Congress as evidence builds up indicating not only confusion, graft and inefficiency, but outright misuse of tax money by poverty workers more interested in demonstrations and publicity than in the poor.

Reports from cities such as Nashville, Houston, New York, Washington, Chicago and Newark have these workers "up to their ears" in activities ranging from "hate schools" to riot-encitement and looting.

Efforts are being made to establish "welfare unions" and organized welfare recipients are marching on Washington demanding guaranteed incomes and freedom from the obligation to accept job training and jobs. Their oft repeated threats to burn down our cities are hardening convictions held by some legislators that money alone isn't going to cure America's sick cities, ghettos, and unemployment problems.

Defense Secretary McNamara's reluctant orders to bomb some vital targets in North Vietnam lead many to ask why they weren't hit two years ago. In the meantime some of the 80,000 casualties suffered might have been averted.

Administration spokesmen have made a feeble case for the President's 10% tax surcharge. Even with the increased tax, we would still be stuck with a whopping $18 billion deficit. More and more federal lawmakers are insisting on specific cuts in spending.

Reports of proposed Administration cuts, followed by denial, led to even more skepticism on Capitol Hill. It's hard to believe promises about "fiscal restraint." While preaching economy, the President steps up spending. New programs are announced every few days. In July alone, the Administration added 31,907 new federal employees to the payroll. Higher prices and accelerating inflation are making taxpayers angry.

Recent F.B.I. reports confirm what many people have suspected - a rapidly growing crime wave with no end in sight and little action by Washington to combat it.

To those who had hoped that, somehow, these and other troubles would simply "go away" - that our society and economy were really too strong to be hurt, the answer is that they haven't. On the contrary everything suggests that the "chickens are coming home to roost."

Keep your money in a safe place.

There are lots of places to keep your money. Places that are safe. And places that are not so safe. When it's the money you've set aside for your savings, you want to keep it where you know it's safe. Where you know it's earning a profitable return. And where you know it's available when you need it. That's the kind of money to keep in the world's largest bank. You can't find any safer place than that.

Some freeway priorities advanced

Some freeways important to this area have advanced in priority according to information released in Sacramento, including work on the Foothill Freeway and widening of the San Bernardino Freeway.

Gov. Ronald Reagan announced that since Jan. 1, $99 million has been added to the highway budget due to economies in Transportation departments, lower construction bids received and an unanticipated $18 million from a 1966 budgeting error.

Of the $99 million, $79 million has been realized and $20 million is anticipated during the 1967-68 fiscal period.

"I have been advised by my secretary of business and transportation, Gordon C. Luce, that the California Highway Commission has now advanced the priority of a total of 44 projects during the last few months because of these additional funds.

"This will result in an accelerated highway construction and safety program for California. This unprecedented speed-up will result in more jobs and savings of lives, as well as improve the transportation problems existing in some sections of the State," Gov. Reagan said.

In July the Governor announced that $52 million in savings and reduced bids had allowed 13 projects to move up on the priority list; $37 million was used for construction and $15 million for augmentation of the right of way program for future projects.

Now an additional $47 million has moved up 29 projects. Luce said the source of these funds consists of: an additional $20 million from anticipated operating expense savings in the motor vehicle fund for 1967-68; $18 million additional to the highway fund resulting from a misunderstanding in the Department of Finance in 1966 regarding a loan to the right of way acquisition fund; and $9 million from the highway fund contingency reserve.

Fifteen million dollars will be used in the North and $32 million in the South.

"I would like to congratulate the California Highway Commission and the Department of Public Works, Motor Vehicles and California Highway Patrol for their cooperative efforts in realizing these additional moneys which can be used for safety and highway construction," the Governor said, adding: "I am happy to make this announcement during National Highway Week so that California motorists may share in the knowledge that their gas taxes are being fully utilized for their benefit."

Below are listed projects in this area being advanced:

$4,500,000 of the $6,000,000 needed to extend construction in progress on the eight-lane Interstate 210 (Foothill) Freeway two miles easterly from Azusa Avenue (Route 39) in Azusa, and to grade an additional 2.4 miles easterly to Glendora.

The project involves construction of an overhead across the A.T. & S.F. Railroad at the easterly end of the work.

The remaining $1,500,000 will be budgeted in the 1968-

69 fiscal year.

$5,500,000 to extend a recently completed widening of the San Bernardino Freeway (Interstate 10) from four to eight lanes another 2.5 miles easterly from Pepper Ave. in Colton to the Interstate 15-US 395 Interchange in San Bernardino.

The project will complete widening of the freeway to eight lanes between the Los Angeles County line at Montclair and Banning in Riverside County, except for a three-mile stretch of six lanes through Ontario.

$6,100,000 for widening the San Bernardino Freeway (Interstate 10) in eastern Los Angeles County. The project will widen this facility from six to eight lanes between 0.5 mile west of Ganesha Blvd. in Pomona and the San Bernardino County line, 5.2 miles easterly.

It will include widening the interchanges at Garey Ave. - Orange Grove Ave., San Antonio Ave. and Indian Hill Blvd.

$2,000,000 to construct truck climbing lanes on up-hill portions of the Interstate 15 Freeway between two miles east of Baker and five miles west of the Nevada State line, a distance of 34.7 miles.

$4,600,000 to extend four-lane freeway construction on the Interstate 40 Freeway east of Barstow another 11 miles easterly to 2.1 miles east of Ludlow.

The 11-mile project includes construction of an interchange at Cruceiro Road in Ludlow and bridges across Argos Wash, Sand Hill Wash and West Ludlow Wash.

$2,200,000 toward the $8,900,000 cost of extending the eight-lane Barstow Freeway (Interstate 15) construction in progress between Devore and Route 138 at Cajon another 4.9 miles northerly on new alignment to Cajon Summit.

The project will include grading for future safety roadside rests, about 1.5 miles southwest of the summit, and three railroad overheads.

$1,400,000 to widen 4.8 miles of the Interstate 8 Freeway in El Cajon.

The project involves widening between 0.5 miles of Chase Avenue and the Magnolia Avenue Interchange from six to eight lanes, and from this point to Third Street from four to six lanes.

It includes widening to eight lanes the bridges across El Cajon Blvd., West Main St., Marshall Ave., Johnson Ave., Magnolia Ave., Ballentine Ln., Mollison Ave., First St., and Second St.

New Cubbing program goes into effect

Major improvements in the Cub Scout program of the Boy Scouts of America go into effect this month after a five-year study, and the revisions are expected to increase Cub Scouting's natural appeal for boys and provide more help for volunteer leaders.

"The study findings brought out very clearly the vitality and soundness of the Cub Scout program," Dr. William Toothaker told the executive board of the Old Baldy Council, Boy Scouts of America, this week.

"There is evidence of genuine enthusiasm for the program on the part of boys, leaders, and parents."

The Cub Scout program was formally launched in 1930, and the last major changes were made in 1952.

There are now over two million Cub Scouts in the United States.

Training in the improved Cub Scout program is being given to all Cub Scout pack leaders Oct. 7-11.

One of the early steps before starting the series of studies and surveys was to prepare a "statement of purpose" related to Cub Scouting for the present day, Toothaker said.

haker said.

"The Cub Scout Study Committee wanted a yardstick to measure Cub Scouting's outcomes and to provide leaders of Cub Scout packs with criteria for judging their work," Toothaker said.

The basic statement that resulted is that "Cub Scouting is a program of the Boy Scouts of America for parents, leaders, and institutions to use with boys 8, 9, and 10 years of age."

Then, the purposes of Cub Scouting were listed: to influence the development of character and encourage spiritual growth; develop habits and attitudes of good citizenship; encourage good sportsmanship and pride in growing strong in mind and body; improve understanding within the family; strengthen the ability to get along with other boys and respect other people; foster a sense of personal achievement by developing new interests and skills; show how to be helpful and do one's best; provide fun and exciting new things to do; and prepare boys to become Boy Scouts.

One of the key research projects was carried out in 1964 when an in-depth study was conducted by the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan Institute for Social Research. Researchers fanned out across the country to interview a scientifically selected cross section of families with boys of Cub Scout age—mothers, fathers, and the boys themselves—on the interests, problems, and activities of boys from 8 to 10 years old.

Highlights of the improvements include a new and different experience for Cub Scouts in their 10th year (the Webelos Scout program), a new leadership position of Den Leader coach in Cub Scout packs, revision of achievements and electives in the advancement program so that the 8-year-old Wolf and 9-year-old Bear advancement patterns are no longer so similar, recognition through registration of assistant Den Mothers, and provision for a boy to enter Cub Scouting any time after he is 8 years of age or in the third grade.

The Webelos Scout program was described by Toothaker as "a most dramatic and significant improvement." The 10-year old's advancement program is based on 15 hobby and vocational subjects called "activity badge areas," although the requirements for the Webelos Award remain basically the same. The Webelos den leader will be a man, and meetings will be held weekly in the early evening or on Saturday morning. There will be a broader outdoor program than for the younger Cub Scouts but not including the rugged activities reserved for Boy Scouts.

The Old Baldy Council currently has more than 3,000 boys active in the Cub Scouting program in the communities of Pomona, Walnut, Diamond Bar, San Dimas, La Verne, Claremont, Chino, Upland, Ontario, Montclair, Alta Loma, Cucamonga, Etiwanda and Fontana. The Council's Service Center is located at 120 West San Jose, Claremont.

WHOLE CAST of "Dear Ruth." Garrick Players comedy, poses to the newscamera in a wedding scene at The Castle, C and Lemon, Ontario, where show will be presented Oct. 12, 13, 14 and Oct. 19, 20, 21. The names, from left, Don Batten, Tom Rhodes, Jean Appel, Gary Miller, Helen Weissleder, Carol Adamson, Marie Heiple, Nancy Bassett, Ron Adamson.

Dear Ruth:

Garrick players busy as bees at Castle

Activity runs high at The Castle, C and Lemon, Ontario, as Garrick Players prepare for their presentation of Norman Krasna's "Dear Ruth," Oct. 12, 13, 14, and 19, 20, 21, 8:15.

The entire membership of Garrick Players has helped to completely renovate the interior of the building. The refreshment room has been repainted, the lobby carpeted, and a ladies' lounge furnished for the patrons.

A medallion on the large double black doors identifies the building as "The Castle" and an outside signboard carries announcements of coming productions.

Stage manager Richard Colvill, Montclair, is being assisted by Jerry McKenzie in set construction, Gary Colvill as lighting technician, Arnold Deiter for sound, with Inez Mays, Upland, and Casey O'Connor, Ontario, planning and gathering the properties for the stage.

Head of makeup is Pat Murphy, assisted by Cathy and Len Smith, and advised by professional Gayle Holder. Posters and other artwork have been prepared by Clark Heiple. Sandi McKenzie will have the programs ready for opening night.

"Dear Ruth," a light-hearted comedy about a girl who finds herself engaged to two men, is the second production of the Garrick Players 1967-68 season.

1181 Scouts camp out

A high adventure summer camp experience was enjoyed this year by 1181 Scouts and Explorers of the Old Baldy Council, Boy Scouts of America, according to Warren Cliburn, council camping chairman.

A majority of these Scouts spent an exciting week at the Council's Circle B Scout Ranch in the Southern High Sierras under the leadership of their scoutmasters, junior leaders and a trained camp staff.

791 Scouts experienced the thrill of swimming and canoeing in a mountain lake, firing on an archery and rifle range, exploring the mysteries of nature, hiking the beautiful Sierra wilderness, sitting around an evening campfire singing scout songs with buddies.

"Several scout troops and explorer units took special trips to exciting places," Cliburn stated. One of the most popular was hiking the John Muir Trail in the Northern Sierras. Another was a canoe trip down the Klamath River in Northern California.

"Scouting's outdoor program is the basis of Scouting," Cliburn said, "with special emphasis on the week long camp during the summer. Through these experiences young men gain self confidence and self reliance."

The Old Baldy Council, Boy Scouts of America is a participating member of the United Crusade, West End United Fund.

With a Ready ReservAccount you never worry about what's around the corner.

Because you never know what the future will bring, you can never be certain when you'll need extra cash. But you can be certain you'll have it. If you have a Ready ReservAccount at Security Bank.

Ready ReservAccount is extra cash waiting behind your checking account. Ready to be transferred automatically when you write a check. That extra cash is interest free if repaid within 25 days. And you can use it for any purpose at all.

It's good for the emergencies you might otherwise worry about. Like large tax bills and big dental expenses. It's very handy too, for opportunities like a cut-rate excursion to Aspen, or a bargain on a second-hand power mower.

JOGGING a mile or more several times a week is one way to reduce your waistline and get physically fit. Three Oregon physicians and a track coach set 363 Portland-area white-collar workers to jogging the University of Oregon track a half-hour a day, three days a week. The results: In 12 weeks, the 265 men who completed the program reduced their waistlines an average of one and a half inches. Their blood pressure lowered by varying amounts. Nearly 180 overweight men lost an average of 7.8 pounds.

One Eye On The 'Series', The Other On Us

Calls for stand against federal money wasting

House of Representatives' almost unprecedented action last week blocking passage of appropriations with "no strings attached."

"The big jump in consumer prices during August reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics vindicates economy-minded Congressmen in their 'hold the line' action," declared Pettis, who represents 58 Republicans on the powerful Congressional Policy Committee.

"We simply cannot trust the promises of the Executive Branch," concluded Pettis. "We have been tricked too many times into wild, wholesale spending of money our Nation does not have."

The Congressman from San Bernardino County said that the American taxpayers are, through their elected representatives, making themselves heard on projects of little or no value. "Federal spending must be cut and cut significantly," he declared. "The President's call for a 10% increase in taxes will not prevent inflation. Unless real cuts are made in wasted government handouts, Americans will have higher taxes and inflation, too -- and inflation is the cruellest form of taxation because it robs those who can least afford it -- the man who is on a low or fixed income."

"We have," said Pettis, "reached a crisis -- a word that I hesitate to use, because it is heard so often these days. The word 'crisis' denotes a point in time when affairs must terminate or change. We have, in my mind, truly reached a crisis in the management of our Nation. I am proud that the House had the courage to face up to the crisis, and say to the President -- there must be a ceiling on government spending, just as there is a ceiling on the spending of every household in America."

The beginning of the "Modern Navy" came in 1882 when Congress authorized building of the first steel warships.

S&L man says 1930s depression, WW II effect home market

Robert D. Nichols of Upland, vice president of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association has received his diploma for the two-year course in executive development offered at the University of Washington in Seattle by the American Savings and Loan Institute.

The course is designed primarily to broaden management ability in the field of finance and was conducted in two annual sessions of two weeks each.

Nichols also holds a Graduate Diploma from the Savings and Loan Institute and graduated from Claremont Men's College in 1950. Nichols has been in the savings and loan business in Pomona since graduation and has been with Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association since 1962.

Nichols stated that one of the most interesting theories presented in this year's course of study is the fact that the 1930-40 Depression and World War II are now and for some time in the future will be significantly affecting the effective demand for single family housing.

Here is Nichols analysis: The largest grouping of home buyers is in the 30 to 50 years age bracket, while households composed of adults under 30 are typically renters for a variety of reasons such as advanced schooling, a planned delay in parenthood, and the accumulation of a downpayment and the earning ability to qualify for the increasing price of home ownership.

The Depression born, those presently between the ages of 27 and 37, theoretically would represent about 50% of the home purchasing market; however, because of the very low birth rate during the depression, the demand for single family residences is presently very significantly below what it was in the 1950's through early 1964. (Our statistics at Pomona First Federal substantiate this for the Pomona Valley).

Nationally, when can we expect home buying to materially increase? According to theory, the post World War II baby crop which will commence arriving at the home buying age of 30 in approximately 1975 should trigger the start of a very strong demand for single family housing from that date for many years.

In the meantime, on a national basis, we will generally have a demand for single family residences that will not keep pace with the public's desire for other hard goods. Of course, there will be local and regional exceptions. Since the post war boom period of new construction and home sales ended in 1964, we have seen a sharp reduction of the number of adults coming to Southern California from other states.

This factor has definitely played a big part in the construction and home buying lag in the Pomona Valley. A good portion of this reduction in net immigration has been attributed to the generally very low rate of unemployment in most of the states from which people migrate to California.

In fact, nationally, the unemployment rate is significantly lower than that in Southern California; thus people do not have the economic stimulus to move to our area that they have had in past years. We can watch the relative unemployment figures between Southern California and other states to forecast the probability of increased net immigration into Southern California in the future.

What will be the availability of loan funds for home construction and purchase at the time of the anticipated heavy increase in demand for single family housing? Statistics show that the vast majority of our population currently is in the under 35 and over 65 years of age group, especially in Southern California.

Typically this age group of 35 and 65 are the savers, with the heavy savers in the 45 to 65 year group. Net new mortgage funds come from savings. Thus, it appears as though the less than normal number of adults who as a group were born in the depression of 1930 to 1940 will put their biggest dent in the supply of mortgage funds beginning in about 1975.

This shortage should last for about a 10 to 15 year period until the post World War II baby crop begins to take over as the heavy savers. Thus, between now and 1975, there should be an ample supply of funds for loans on homes barring any unusual demand for funds by the U.S. Government.

When the big anticipated demand for home ownership arrives about 1975, there will be some tightening of mortgage money and an increase in the trend of interest rates due to a shortage of savers and funds available for home loans.

ROBERT D. NICHOLS

Dentist enters practice

Dr. John Entner, DDS, announced that he is now associated with Dr. Earl L. Wenger, 718 North Euclid, Ontario for the practice of dentistry.

Dr. Entner attended Chaffey High School and graduated from Upland Academy in Upland in 1957. He graduated from Chaffey Junior College in 1959, and the University of Southern California in 1965 receiving the Degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery.

For the past two years he has been a lieutenant in the Navy serving as assistant dental officer at the North Island Naval Air Station in San Diego. While there he was a member of the base pistol team.

Dr. Entner has his private pilot license with over 125 hours in the air.

A native of California, Dr. Entner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Entner of Upland, now resides at 875 Azure Court, Upland, with his wife, the former Nancy Habegger of Alta Loma, and three children, Jeffrey 6, Lorraine 3 and Linnia 1.

D. Kitchel elevated by Kaiser

D.B. Kitchel has been appointed assistant general manager of purchasing for Kaiser Steel Corporation, it was announced by A.G. Grey, general manager of purchasing.

For the past seven years Kitchel has been assistant general purchasing agent. In his new assignment Kitchel will assist Grey in reorganizing purchasing activities on a corporate basis, and in the administration of purchasing activities at all company locations. His office will remain in the Kaiser Center, Oakland, California.

Kitchel is a native of Upland, California and attended Chaffey Junior College and the University of California at Los Angeles where he majored in Economics and Business Administration.

1859-1967...108 YEARS YOUNG

WE STARTED IN 1859 BUT... WE'RE NOT 108 YEARS OLD!

We're 108 years young.

We're old enough to understand the soundness of time-tested basic ideas, but young enough to keep trying to improve them.

Modernization and keeping abreast of new ideas and techniques is a must for today's successful business.

We wouldn't be the world's largest food retailer if we weren't constantly thinking modern, thinking young.

But some basic thinking never changes.

Take that of our founder for instance. He was dedicated, as we are, to bringing the most good food, to the most people, for the least amount of money.

To being fair, honest and trustworthy. To caring about the people he served.

No matter how progressive, how automated, how modern we become, we pledge to maintain these sound principles of our founder.

Even when we're 208 years young!
